Legal Information

Ultima Payments a.s. uses cookies and similar technologies to improve their online services. By using Ultima Payments a.s., you agree to the use of cookies in accordance with your browser settings.

If you visit our website while you have cookies enabled in our browser, we consider it to be a consent to their use and to accept our terms of use. For instructions on how to change your cookie settings, see the Help or Help for each browser.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files containing the name of the page you visit, validity, and a predefined value. They are stored in your browsers folder. When you revisit the website that created the file, it can be resubmitted by the browser. The cookies we use do not harm your computer or other devices used to browse the Internet. They serve to improve the services provided by, for example, storing user preferences or logging out for a repeated visit

How do we use your information?

We may use the information we collect from you when you register, login to your account, sign up for our newsletter, respond to a survey or marketing communication, surf the website.

What cookies do we use?

Basic allows you to use basic features such as registering a registered user or pre-filling forms. If you disable these cookies, we can not guarantee the full functionality of our site.

Running serves to analyze a visitor's behavior on a web page and then to improve its functionality and appearance. If you disable these cookies, we can not guarantee the full functionality of our site.

Third-party cookies are created and used by service providers like Google Analytics or Google Words. These services are integrated into our site because we consider them useful and fully secure.

How do I disable cookies?

Most Internet browsers are set to automatically receive cookies after installation. To learn how to change this setting, see Help or Help in your browser. Any changes to the browser settings are only valid for a specific browser on that device. Remember that if you disable cookies, we can not guarantee the full functionality of the site.
